EPACENTER

epacenter.org

EPACENTER is a creative youth development organization that works with East Palo Alto youth as they amplify their talents and impact their world through art and design. The name (pronounced “epicenter”) refers to the rich cultural energy of our home, the City of East Palo Alto (EPA). East Palo Alto’s power and potential is evident in our young people. At EPACENTER, they provide opportunities for youth to amplify their creative voices, resulting in a stronger and more vibrant city.

California Lawyers for the Arts

www.calawyersforthearts.org

California Lawyers for the Arts [CLA] is a non-profit organization founded in 1974 to provide legal services to artists and members of the creative arts community. In 1987, Bay Area Lawyers for the Arts [BALA] joined forces with Volunteer Lawyers for the Arts-Los Angeles [VLA] to form California Lawyers for the Arts as a statewide organization.

CLA is part of an informal network of “Volunteer Lawyers for the Arts” programs that serve artists through state-based organizations throughout the United States. CLA is a multi-faceted arts service organization that provides legal support, alternative dispute resolution services, educational programs, and advocacy for the arts and justice reform.

Important information about giving through your donor advised fund: Current SFF policy allows donor advised funds to give only to organizations designated by the IRS as having 501(c)(3) public charity status. Many charities working on democracy issues have a partner 501(c)(4) public welfare organization. A 501(c)(4) can do extensive lobbying and some directly partisan work. If you desire to give to a 501(c)(4) organization, you can do so with personal funds. Organizations included in this give guide that have a known 501(c)(4) arm are marked with an asterisk, and the associated 501(c)(4) is noted.
